TOWARD HOLINESS

Treating others as we think they deserve is risky business. Lacking God's all-seeing vision, we can't read hearts. How often do we judge someone only to discover later that his motives were not what we had guessed? Jesus offers a better way: love others whether they deserve it or not. Doing so, we're only passing along what we've already received: God's given us grace beyond our merits. "He makes his sun rise on the bad and the good" (Matthew 5:45). Assuming the best of others, loving and forgiving them, we imitate our heavenly Father and inch toward that perfect holiness we're all called to. .

Pastor's Reflection:

It is hard to believe that we are only about ten days away from the beginning of Lent. The word "Lent" comes from an old Anglo Saxon word meaning "to lengthen" and what is lengthening now are of course, our daylight hours which means the coming of spring. Lent is always the beginning of new life. It takes some planning for that new life to take root in our spiritual lives. Here in the parish once again we will be offering the ever popular "Little Black Books" as a daily prayer guide. In addition, we are offering Matthew Kelly's latest spiritual guide Resisting Happiness for your Lenten spiritual reading. Along with this, I invite you to sign up now online at www.bestlentever.com for a daily email Lenten Program that will come to you starting on Ash Wednesday. It will have short inspirational videos, practical tips for keeping Lent, and ways to open your heart to God. Here in the parish, we will have the ever popular Lenten Fish Dinners as well as the Stations of the Cross every Friday of Lent. In addition, throughout Lent at different times, we are going to be offering informational tours of our newly renovated church to help everyone appreciate the riches of all that we have in our newly renovated church. Finally during the fifth week of Lent, we will have a Parish Mission entitled, "Treasuring Life," which will prepare us for the riches of Holy Week. Now is the time to start loosening the soil of your heart to receive the many graces that God will pour out upon us in the season of Lent that is upon us.

ST VINCENT DEPAUL SOCIETY February 19:

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel, Jesus challenges us by saying: "You must be perfected as your heavenly Father is perfect." This sets the bar for our character very high, the goal is to be like the Father in our attitudes and behavior, to set the bar any lower is to not have a goal worth shooting for. Rising to new heights of righteousness may be difficult, but remember that in Christ we have been given all that is necessary to help us attain to Christ-likeness; including our outreach to the poor. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts and into our lives. Please donate to the Seton St. Vincent de Paul society and help spread God's love to others. Monetary donations are welcome any time, and our first Donation Truck weekend of the year is March 11th & 12th. For additional information, please contact our Seton SVDP Conference at (614) 205-2347 or send an email to info@setonparishsvdp.org.

February 19, 2017 – Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

554. In what does the prayer of intercession consist?

Intercession consists in asking on behalf of another. It conforms us and unites us to the prayer of Jesus who intercedes with the Father for all, especially sinners. Intercession must extend even to one's enemies.

SPY THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time "But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." MATTHEW 5:44

Love your enemies, easier said than done, no doubt. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It allows us to have a little more empathy for "our enemy". When we pray for others, even "our enemies", maybe it softens their hearts as well.

SPY ADORATION HOUR: Join us as we take an hour to spend with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament before school on Friday mornings from 5:30 – 6:30 am!! What better to start the weekend than with Christ!!
