LISTEN!

Today's parables show how the good news changes and enlarges all it touches. We respond to the revealing of things hidden with awe, prayer, faith and action. When awe tongues us, the Holy Spirit speaks for us and in us, leading our witness and actions toward the light of the kingdom of the Father. Listen, anyone who has ears, to hear!

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY – SETON PARISH
July 23—Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Hearing this Gospel, we can trust that God knows our love and good deeds, and that he will mercifully gather us into his kingdom. Though evil people may dwell alongside of Christ's followers, they are not able to prevail over the citizens of Christ's Kingdom who are likened to a tiny mustard seed, or a small portion of leaven. Though small and insignificant in appearance they are able to affect their environment in a major way. So Christ intends for us, to affect our environment in a major way. This week, please say a special prayer each day for the poor and forgotten in our parish. Contact us at \(614\) 205-2347 or send an email to info@setonparishsvdp.org. Reminder: our next Truck Donation dates are August 12th & 13th and October 28th & 29th. We will also host another "shred" day at Spence Funeral Homes on October 7th in Canal Winchester. Donations can also be made by designating our St. Vincent de Paul Conference as your Amazon Smile charity, visit <https://smile.amazon.com>

Catechism Corner

Sponsored by the Spiritual Life Commission

July 23, 2017 – Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE FIRST COMMANDMENT: I AM THE LORD YOUR GOD, YOU SHALL NOT HAVE OTHER GODS BEFORE ME

446. Does the commandment of God, "You shall not make for yourself a graven image" (Exodus 20:3), forbid the cult of images?
 In the Old Testament this commandment forbade any representation of God who is absolutely transcendent. The Christian veneration of sacred images, however, is justified by the incarnation of the Son of God (as taught by the Second Council of Nicea in 787AD) because such veneration is founded on the mystery of the Son of God made man, in whom the transcendent God is made visible. This does not mean the adoration of an image, but rather the veneration of the one who is represented in it: for example, Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Angels and the Saints.

Contemplating the Mass
at St. Therese's Retreat Center
Thursday, August 24, 2017

Want to get more out of your Sunday (and weekday) attendance at Mass? Here's your chance. Fr. Dan Dury, pastor of St. Catharine Church in Columbus will help you do that very thing at the Catholic Laywomen's Retreat League's third annual Evening of Reflection Thursday, August 24, 2017 from 6-9 p.m. Using the Mass as his topic, Fr. Dan will present exciting and powerful insights. He will open the door to contemplate more profoundly this most perfect prayer of thanksgiving. In so doing, he will lead the way to a deeper experience of this most sacred of all mysteries, which is the source and summit of all of life. Held at St. Therese's Retreat Center, in Columbus, this presentation will consist of two conferences by Fr. Dury, before and after an elegant prime rib dinner. The event closes with evening prayer in the intimate chapel of the historic retreat center. Unlike the league's weekend retreats, this event is not a silent one.

Cost is $25 and the deadline is August 1. Space is limited and will fill long quickly. The registration form, along with more detailed information, is available at retreatleague@gmail.com or by calling CLRL Secretary Sharon Gehrlich at 614-882-1946. Phone reservations cannot be accepted.
